

RESILIENCY FLORIDA

September Resiliency Toolkit

Each month, Resiliency Florida features one of the 11 key Resiliency Characteristics as the Characteristic of the Month. This month, Resiliency Florida is spotlighting citizenship.

In this toolkit, parents, teachers and school leaders will find a variety of resources to support starting the conversation about citizenship, not only in school, but at home.

To learn about the other key Resiliency Characteristics, visit BuildResiliency.org.

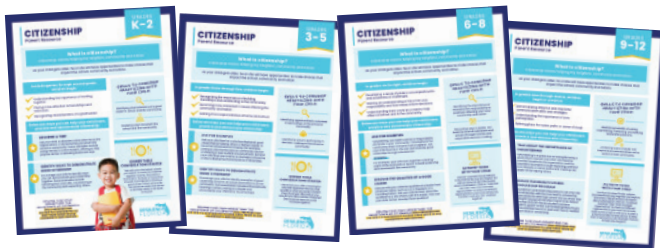

SEPTEMBER CHARACTERISTIC OF THE MONTH

 Citizenship Helping my neighbor, community and nation.

MATERIALS

PARENT RESOURCES

The Parent Resources are designed for parents and children to have conversations about resiliency at home. Download the Parent Resources for this month's characteristic, citizenship, by clicking the correct grade band below.

 GRADES K-2

GRADES 3-5

 GRADES 6-8

GRADES 9-12

TEACHER RESOURCES

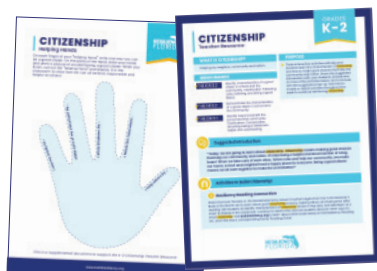

Resiliency Florida's 44 new teacher resources, designed to help teach Florida's 11 Resiliency Characteristics are live! These resources are free to download, aligned with the Resiliency Education Standards and include supplemental materials.

 GRADES K-2

 GRADES 3-5

 GRADES 6-8

 GRADES 9-12

SEPTEMBER CLASSROOM POSTER

Resiliency Florida provides teachers with a printable poster for September's Characteristic of the Month, citizenship, which can be displayed in classrooms and media centers.

 POSTER

SAMPLE NEWSLETTER POSTS

School and district leaders can use the visuals and copy below to spread the word about resiliency and the Resiliency Florida Characteristic of the Month.

SUGGESTED POST TEXT

The Resiliency Reading List features books that help start the conversation with your children about the Resiliency Characteristics.

This month, our book spotlight is on "Citizenship and Leadership" from The Moral Compass: Stories for a Life's Journey by William J. Bennett. This passage highlights the importance of citizenship, the Resiliency Florida Characteristic of the Month!

 GRAPHIC

SUGGESTED POST TEXT

By practicing citizenship at school and at home, your child will gain a better understanding of how helping your neighbor, community and nation creates a better world.

Visit BuildResiliency.org to find a variety of resources that support parents, grandparents, teachers and community leaders in teaching children about citizenship and other Resiliency Characteristics.

 GRAPHIC

RESILIENCY FLORIDA

September Resiliency Toolkit

FAMILY RESILIENCY READING GUIDES

The Family Resiliency Reading Guides are resources to continue discussions at home about the books located on the Resiliency Reading List. Each Family Resiliency Reading Guide contains a summary of the book, literacy tips, and conversation starters about resiliency. Use the following reading guides to start a conversation about citizenship with your student after reading "Citizenship and Leadership" from *The Moral Compass: Stories for a Life's Journey by William J. Bennett.

"Citizenship and Leadership" from The Moral Compass: Stories for a Life's Journey
by William J. Bennett

 READING GUIDE

SOCIAL MEDIA POSTS

Download the graphics below to share on social media and help spread the word about the Resiliency Florida Characteristic of the Month.

SUGGESTED POST TEXT

By volunteering as a Resiliency Coach, you are modeling citizenship.
Learn how you can support students by becoming a Resiliency Coach at BuildResiliency.org.

 GRAPHIC

SUGGESTED POST TEXT

Citizenship means helping your neighbor, community and nation.
Set the example! Become a Resiliency Coach today and mentor the next generation.
Get started at BuildResiliency.org today.

 GRAPHIC

SUGGESTED POST TEXT

Volunteer as a Resiliency Coach at your school today! Make an impact on the lives of students and your community.
Sign up today at BuildResiliency.org!

 GRAPHIC

SUGGESTED POST TEXT

Helping children understand the importance of citizenship helps to prepare him or her to contribute to society and take pride in our nation.
Start the conversation about citizenship in your classroom with the new Resiliency Florida Teacher Resources at BuildResiliency.org.

 GRAPHIC

SUGGESTED POST TEXT

This month, choose a volunteer activity to do as a family, like donating to a food pantry or participating in a community clean-up.
Shared experiences build stronger communities and help children become active, responsible citizens.
Learn more at BuildResiliency.org.

 GRAPHIC

SUBSCRIBE TO THE NEWSLETTER

Parents, teachers and community leaders can subscribe to the Resiliency Florida newsletter via the button below. Each month, the newsletter is filled with a variety of resources to support the Resiliency Florida Characteristic of the Month.

 SUBSCRIBE

